Hello! TEEN WORLD is coming your way again, exploding with frankness and fun, with surprises and exciting treats. We explode with fun, because we think you should have more of it and we are interested in everything that interests you. We know how thrilled you are with certain stars and we want you to know more about them, how they influence your life, how they fascinate you. We've got tips on them you couldn't really learn anywhere else . . . their past, their present, even their future! They're as much a part of your Teen World as the party you go to, the friends you confide in, the people you date—and would, oh, so, love to date!

We explode with frankness too, because we face issues honestly, not dodging them or sweeping them conveniently under the carpet. We look at them openly and we want to help you do that, too. That's how to get to know others and yourself—and wipe out all doubts and fears that plague you in these important years.

Glow as you grow happily and successfully with TEEN WORLD, the magazine that brightens your World.

Manuscripts are checked for accuracy and special helpfulness to you by Dr. Mason Will. (Ph. D.,) Educator and Family Counselor.

TEEN WORLD, August, 1968, Vol. 11, No. 6. Published monthly except for January, March, May, July and November by Reese Publishing Company, Inc., 201 Park Avenue South, New York, N.Y. 10003. Single copy 25¢. Subscription rates $3.00 for 12 issues. Second class postage paid at New York, N.Y. and Sparta, Illinois.

Girls! A Fabulous Figure The 6 Second Way!

It is almost like a miracle, but you can actually lose flab around stomach, thighs, waist, hips, neck, face and not move out of your seat. Unbelievable? New scientific tests show that you get faster and better results from Isometrics, the new method of exercise. Another astounding fact about Isometrics is that you do each exercise only 6 seconds a day. No special equipment is required, or trips to gyms, playing fields, swimming pools or bowling alleys and you can concentrate on any part of the body that you are interested in controlling.

Ah, a quiet moment for Sajid. He takes advantage of it by doing things he can't do during busy hours—like plan his future!

WHEN NIGHT falls, some strange, wild things can often happen! And they do to Sajid! He does things he wouldn't dare do in the daytime, things he couldn't do! Under the cover of darkness he does things you'd never know about and could never imagine—unless we told you! And here they are . . .

. . . Sajid dares to take long, leisurely walks by himself! That may not sound very daring—but in the daytime, he couldn't do it safely! That's 'cause he'd be followed by fans. And over-enthusiastic fans are known to attack their fav stars quite often. While trying to get a lock of his hair or a button off his shirt as a souvenir, they might physically harm him! But in the darkness there aren't many people out to recognize him and he can always hide in the shadows. So Saj can walk to his heart's content enjoying the weather or window shopping!

. . . Sajid practices dance steps! He turns on the music in his room and just lets go to the sound of it! It's a great way of keeping trim and it's relaxing. But he has another good reason for doing it, too. Saj is sort-of shy about learning dance steps in public with a lot of people watching him. At night he's sure nobody will see him so he isn't embarrassed by his mistakes. Then, when he goes to his fav discotheque with a date, he can really groove—and come off like an expert!

. . . Sajid sings! In addition to his acting, Sajid would really love to cut a couple of records. But he doesn't want his public to hear him until he's sure he's going to be a hit. So he's learning lots of new songs and rehearsing old ones! He does it very late at night when he's sure there's nobody around to listen. And then when he's ready, he'll make his musical debut!

. . . Sajid practices his English! He tries very hard to build up his vocabulary—especially all the latest slang words—by saying things out loud so he can develop a perfect accent and pronunciation. That way, the next day,

SAJID

Nighttime is groove time! For Sajid, that means girls, fun, thrills and he can surprise everybody by understanding everything they're saying and teasing them with the new things he's learned!

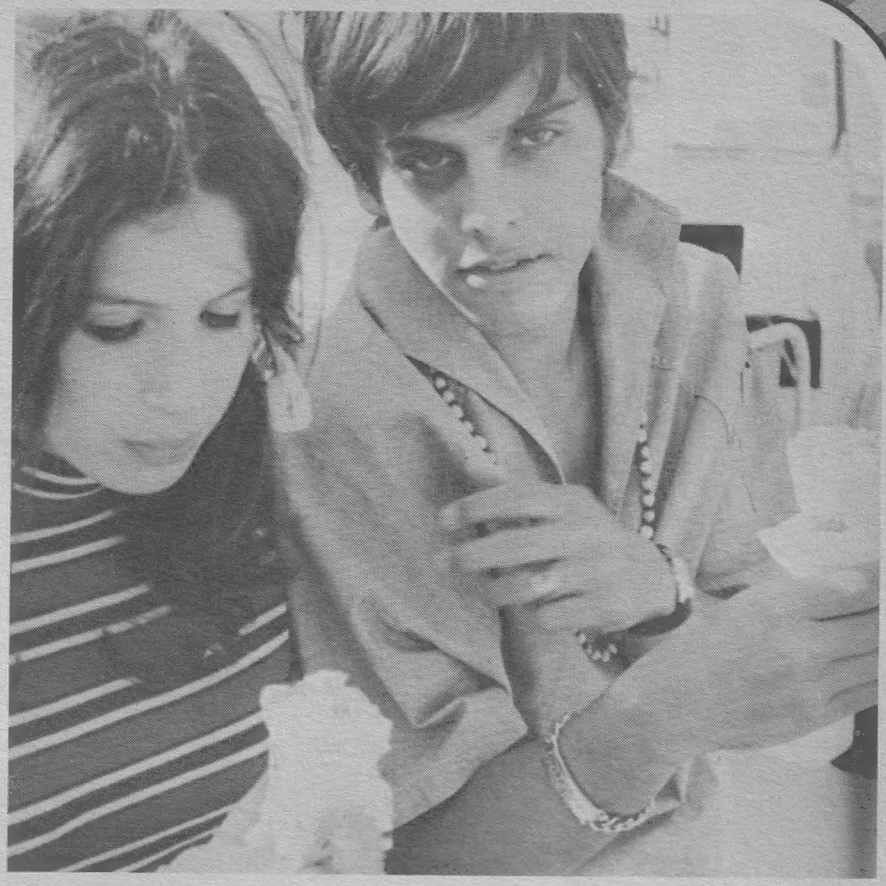
. . . Sajid writes letters! It's not that he couldn't do it during the day—but he never has the time. So late at night, when he's all alone, he can concentrate on writing letters to friends and answering fan mail! His letters are much more interesting that way, too—because when it's dark he feels very philosophical and poetic!

. . . Sajid thinks about love! It's so romantic in the evening with the moon out. Sajid's thoughts naturally turn to thoughts of girls—one girl in particular! She's his dream girl and though he doesn't know exactly what she looks like, he does know that she has a soft voice and huge, deep, very sensitive eyes and beautiful hands! He thinks about her so much that when he meets her—he'll immediately know who she is!

. . . Sajid studies his lines! The best time to concentrate is when there's nobody around to disturb him. Then he memorizes his acting roles and practices them in front of a mirror! He'd feel very self-conscious in front of people unless his acting were absolutely perfect—and this gives him a chance to perfect it before he goes in front of the cameras!

. . . Sajid makes lists! He makes lists of all the things he'd like to do, all the places he'd like to travel to, what clothes he needs, which people he'd like to invite to his next party . . . the lists go on and on in a thousand different directions. But that doesn't mean he follows them! Sajid is pretty spontaneous and he'll add or drop something depending on the mood he's in. But he does get a kick out of making lists 'cause it makes him feel his life is organized!

. . . Sajid tries on clothes! He goes through his wardrobe choosing accessories and trying to get a new and interesting look. That way, if anybody invites him to a last-minute party, he's not caught short. He knows he has the exactly perfect thing to wear. ●●●



Sajid and June White aren't letting their ice cream go to waste! And, from the looks of things, they aren't letting their time together go to waste, either!

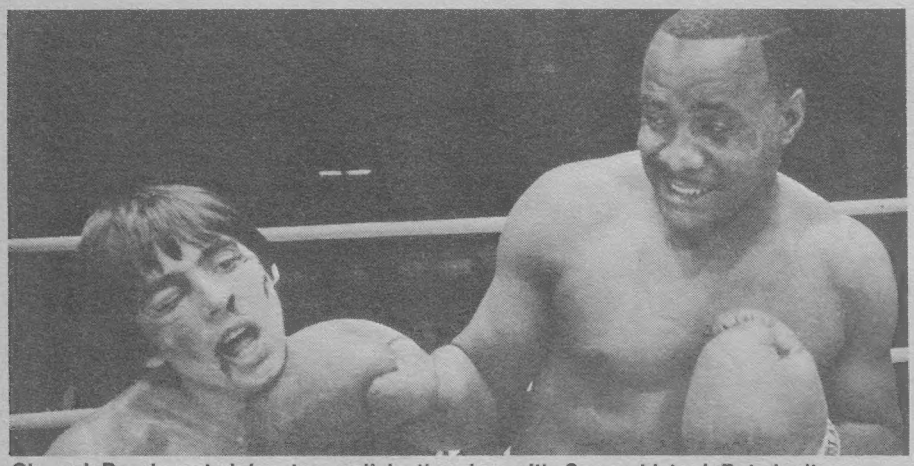
After regular working hours, Sajid can "play" without worrying about being recognized by fans! Here, he and Desi Arnaz, Jr. have a little fun on wheels!

WHAT HE DARES TO DO IN THE DARK!

much more! All the very intimate details are here—for your eyes only!

STAR

Here's all the latest gossip, gab, and up-to-date information on all your fav-



Oh, no! Davy's not doing too well in the ring with Sonny Liston! But don't worry—it's just part of The Monkees' movie! And, obviously, it's loaded with action!

SINCE she's not spending quite so much time with DAVY JONES, perky SALLY FIELD has been helping mend the broken heart (his marriage is on the rocks) of co-star ALEJANDRO REY. Sally and Alejandro spend mucho time together away from "The Flying Nun" set . . . but friends still say that Sally's heart belongs to Davy. Ohhhhh, such goings on!

There's talk around Hollywood that SALLY's mom and her step-dad, JOCK MAHONEY, are splitsville . , . which makes Sally a mighty sad girl . . . She loves her close relationship with her family.

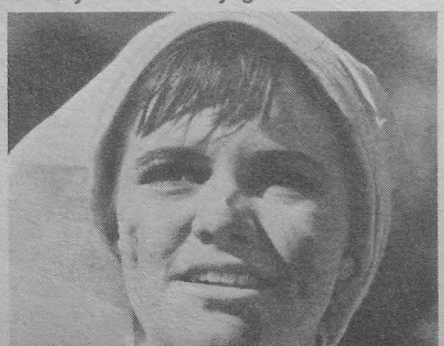
It looks like the end of a beautiful romance between NANCY SINATRA and RON JOY . . . As of this writing, Nancy has been seeing lots of a guy named DICK DONNER . . . Meantime, Nancy's kid sister, TINA SINATRA, and DINO MARTIN are a hot dating duo.

Congrats go out to MARK SLADE, who plays Blue on "High Chaparral," and beautiful MELINDA RICCILLI, who happens not only to be his press agent, but also his blushing bride.

DACK RAMBO and JOYCE BECKER keep the long-kisstance telephones pretty busy with those midnight chit-chats that last for hours. Don't be toooo surprised if you hear a record by that handsome star in the very near future . . . he has a groovy singing voice. Dack's also thinking of putting out a line of men's clothing . . .

CHUBBY CHECKER grew a beard!

A dirty face doesn't hide Sally Field's beauty! She's really got what it takes!



Special Scoop: Being a pop star can be pretty dangerous business! As part of their stage act, for example, THE HERD wave around bunches of bananas. Well, recently, member ANDREW STEELE looked down at his right wrist and noticed a fat and hairy object crawling up his arm. He shook it off and went on with the act. Later, it was discovered that the "object" was a three-inch-wide poisonous bird-eating spider that had crawled off the bananas onto Andy! The Herd, by the way, are thinking of dropping the banana bit from their act in the future!

And since DAVY JONES isn't seeing quite so much of SALLY FIELD, he's been seeing lots of lovely LINDA HAYNES . . . For KATHY GARVER, it's STEVE CARLSON . . . and JUDY CARNE and TEDDY NEELEY are also dating duos.

Could it be a romance between TRINI LOPEZ and BEVERLY WASHBURN (she looks great with her new dark hair)??? . . . Same question for LINDA CRISTAL and ADAM WEST? . . . People say wedding bells are being sounded for these two!!!

THE SUPREMES' two talented dolls, DIANA ROSS and MARY WILSON, did such a swinging acting job on that "Tarzan" TV segment, the studios are now bidding for their services as actresses . . . not as a singing group.

Columbia Records had a swingin' bash for their newest group, BLOOD, SWEAT AND TEARS. Every top pop star who was in New York attended. LULU, who looked lovely, was in the big town on her way to Hollywood for movie confabs, and thought this new group was the livin' end. Blood, Sweat and Tears was formed by AL KOOPER, former organist for THE BLUES PROJECT.

JOHNNY RIVERS dropped me a note to let me know he hopes to have THE FIFTH DIMENSION up, up and away on the big silver screen in the very near future.

JESSE LOPEZ, kid brother of TRINI, was in a bad auto accident but is fine after two operations. "Jesse's now recording for my company," says Trini. "But he's promised me he'll finish college before going full scale into show business." Trini had to leave high school to support his family and LIGHT...

Judith Felice

orite singers and stars. There's news from everywhere! Don't miss a single line!

he's determined Jesse won't do the same.

Special Scoop: When PAUL McCARTNEY flew into Cannes, France to start "A Round of Magic And Mystery," the motion picture he's filming sans the rest of THE BEATLES, the customs men gave him a hard time! They kept looking around in his luggage for heavens knows what!!! Paul was kept there for over an hour. Speaking of The Beatles, their favorite GURU just hired a press-agent. Show biz!

The doors leading to the home of RICK NELSON, his lovely KRIS and their darling children were all imported from Mexico. The home, or should I say estate, is in the Hollywood Hills right near the estate of LORNE GREENE, his Mrs. and their new baby girl.

MARY ANN MOBLEY's hubby, GARY COLLINS, calls her "Mac" . . . Those are her new initials . . . Mary Ann Collins!

With the honeymoon just due to be ending, PAUL PETERSEN and his wife BRENDA BENET are already planning a family. Paul wants ten children, Brenta two. He said he'd settle for eight . . . and she finally said maybe three!

PETULA CLARK enjoyed her annual three-week vacation by going in for winter sports with husband CLAUDE WOLFF and their two daughters in chilly Switzerland. Awaiting her upon her return to work was the musical version of "Goodbye Mr. Chips," her co-starring movie with PETER O'TOOLE.

Up, up and away! Sajid, the athlete, gives that volleyball a good hard hit! It would be nice to be on the other side of the net to catch it, wouldn't you agree?

Since GARY LEWIS made his famous pop, JERRY LEWIS, the grandfather of a girl, Jer's keeping his promise. He's building Gary, his Jinky and the family a big, beautiful house. "I'm sure he would have built us the house if Jimky had given birth to a boy," Gary confesses.

When you look in on JERRY LEWIS' former partner, DEAN MARTIN, you'll never find a dull moment. Young DINO, finally 16 and no longer breaking the law when he drives his new orange Lamborghini (which replaced his "old" Ferrari), has taken to producing and writing for his group . . . DINO, DESI AND BILLY. DEANA is still busy dating JOHNNY RIVERS, and GAIL is in the Hawaiian Islands doing night club shows and making lotsa money . . . And now there's another budding, talented singer in the family. Young RICCI, 14, has formed his own group called THE SOUL SUPPORT.

Special Scoop: Don't look now, but SAJID KHAN's been dating up a storm lately! Guess he really digs American girls. And the feeling is obviously very likewise!

The Fifth Dimension are a very friendly group! And they've got lots of friends!

BOBBY RYDELL and his childhood sweetheart, CAMILLE QUATRONE, have planned a posh Philadelphia wedding. The families, the Rydells and the Quatrones, couldn't be happier that the children are getting married. Camille's a mighty lucky gal . . , Bobby's one of the nicest people I know . . , Much luck to them both.

There's more, so turn the page . . .

...Star

This is a sight for Cowsill lovers! But there's only one thing wrong with it—their faces are hidden! And that's a shame! In fact, it's almost equal to a crime!

Special Scoop: Some groups get together merely by accident. Take THE COWSILLS, for example. In the beginning, only the four boys sang. Then, for a particular song, the boys asked MOM BARBARA and sister Susan to lend their voices. The female voices were only supposed to be used for that one song! But as it all turned out, the girls became part of the act! That's show biz!

The boots MIA FARROW imported for her India stay came from Chandler's Shoe Store in mid-Manhattan.

JILL HAWORTH has just bought herself a pink mink coat . . . and matching pink eyelashes!

People 'round Hollywood are saying that RON HARPER and JOANNA PFLUG are really Mr. and Mrs.

BRENDON BOONE sure 'nuff might be doing a record in the very near future. This talented actor has a mighty groovy voice . . . and you can be sure that a gold disc will be decorating his den wall before too long.

Speaking of sure things, don't be very surprised if that girl, MARLO THOMAS, and that guy, LEN GOLDBERG, announce wedding plans veddy-veddy soon. Marlo has been looking at wedding gowns in a posh Beverly Hills shop.

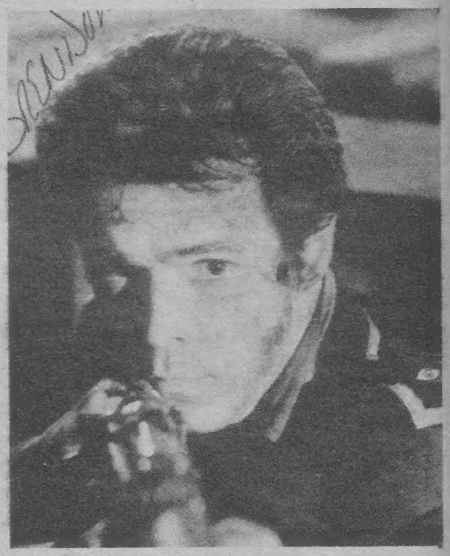
BARBARA PARKINS wants nothing more than to be a big movie star. And she'd give anything to be able to move out of "Peyton Place" and up on to that big silver screen.

YALE SUMMERS giftled his bride with a beautiful mink coat and a lovely Beverly Hills estate . . . One goes with the other, luvs.

Before WALT DISNEY died, he'd completed the basic plans for Disney World which opens in Orlando, Florida in 1971. While I was in Miami Beach visiting with my good friends TINA and FRANK SINATRA, JR. (isn't he just groovy on the "DEAN MARTIN Summer Show"), I saw the plans and couldn't believe my eyes. You can be sure I will be there for opening day . . . Walt Disney was one of the nicest people I ever met.

I'm happy to report that JIMMIE RODGERS is feeling much better since his third operation. That skull fracture still remains a mystery . . . and Jimmie won't be able to work for at least a year . . .His only income will be from the sale of his old records . . . so, all of you Jimmie Rodgers fans, get on the record-buying wagon with the rest of our happy little group. Thanks.

Special Scoop: Wherever they go THE MONKEES cause a sensation! In England, JANINA BICKELL, age 17, wrote a newspaper that she was going out of her mind because her parents wouldn't let her to to London by herself to see The Monkees. Thanks to an escort from the newspaper she wrote to, she not only got to see The Monkees, she got to kiss her favorite, MICKY . . . MIKE NESMITH and his wife made a big splash with a little car . . . they bought a Mini de Ville, finished in sable with a fine gold line. The carpets and leather are dyed a color which the builders call pink champagne. The radio and stereo system has six speakers. Totaling up to a little under $9,000, it certainly threatens to make his six other cars and two motorcycles pale by comparison! . . .



"Stick 'em up," says wonderful Brendon Boone! And it's a pleasure!

Did you know there's a new group playing all the old songs now making it big on the West Coast? They call themselves ALEXANDER'S RAGTIME BAND and are about to sign a great big recording contract . . . I'm sure they'll be the hottest group to fill

BRIGHT

by Judith Felice

Jay loves kids! And this March of Dimes Poster Boy just loves him!

the air-waves and juke-boxes this summer.

CASS ELLIOTT of THE MAMAS AND PAPAS is still telling anyone who'll listen that she's going out on her own as a single. Meanwhile, Cass lost 75 pounds. "Another 60 to go, then I'm on my own," she tells her friends.

Another West Coast group that seems to be making it big are THE FOUR CLOSURES rock group, all of whom are the sons of wealthy bankers and realtors in the Los Angeles area. PAT BOONE is giving them his personal push.

Friends are still saying that wedding bells will be sounding for RICHARD CHAMBERLAIN and his London—lass, SUZANNA NEVE.

Big good wishes go out to JIM STACY (he was once wed to CONNIE STEVENS) and his new Mrs., KIM DARBY. Kim is one of the most talented actresses to hit Hollywood in a long time.

GORDIAN KNOT is one of NANCY SINATRA's top favorite groups . . . mine, too.

VINCE EDWARDS and his bride should have had a visit from Sir Stork by the time you've read this . . .

From friends comes word that TIM BUCKLEY, who records for Elektra Records, has got to be the hottest up 'n coming artist to hit the platter world in many a moon. They say his new LP, "Goodbye

What's the big joke? Peter and Micky are almost hysterical! If you let us in on it, guys, we promise to laugh just as hard and as long . . . and as handsomely!

Marlo Thomas and Ted Bessell go over the script before shooting!

Special Scoop: Believe it or not, HERMAN's never satisfied with himself! He says that when he reads printed interviews he's given or quotes he's said, he never seems to find anything worthwhile in them! Bet a lot of his fans would disagree!

LUCILLE BALL had announced that both of her good-looking children, DESI ARNAZ, JR. and LUCY ARNAZ, JR. will be on her TV series this fall. We all know Desi and how groovy-lookin' he is . . . well, wait until you see how pretty Lucy is.

And Hello," contains some of the most beautifully haunting melodies of our time.

Are you in the mood for some good listening? Here are some albums that promise just that . . . THE MOODY BLUES doing "Days of Future Passed" on Derham, "The Best of THE LOVIN' SPOONFUL, Vol. II" on Kama Sutra, "THE HELLO PEOPLE" on Philips, Mercury's "We Can Fly" on MGM by THE COWSILLS and "Beg, Borrow and Steal" on Cameo by THE OHIO EXPRESS.

Till next time! •••

When the lights go down low, the "shenanigans" start up! Davy, Micky,

THE MONKEES-

Davy and Lulu share an evening of fun and excitement. If you peek closely, you can see Davy's hand on Lulu's arm! Shame, shame? Not really! Just some affection!

LATE AT NIGHT, at that hour sometimes known as the witching hour, our guys, The M's, are still awake! As a matter of fact, it's their favorite time to do the things they'd never dream of doing in daylight! And these are the things they dare to do . . .

. . . Peter reads poetry—out loud! He reads romantic, sentimental poems and really enjoys them. But he wouldn't do it in the daytime 'cause he doesn't want to sound corny or too sentimental. Of course, everybody knows Peter loves to read—but few people know exactly what he reads. He saves his fav things for very late at night so that nobody—except the girl he loves—will ever know how really romantic he is!

. . . Micky "day" dreams! Sometimes he tries not to go to sleep on purpose so that his beautiful and exciting thoughts aren't interrupted! He imagines himself in all sorts of adventures and, of course, he's always the hero! Or he imagines long trips to exotic places. Or he just sits and thinks about being with Sam!

. . . Davy goes swimming! There is nothing more exciting than going for a midnight dip on a moonlit beach. And there's nothing more romantic than taking along his fav gal of the hour whenever he has the chance. In the daytime he just doesn't have the time—and it wouldn't be half as much fun, anyway!

. . . Mike makes plans with Phyllis! During the day, they're both feeling pretty practical. But at night, they discuss their wildest dreams as if they have a possibility of coming true. Way before Mike was famous, they used to discuss how they'd feel and live if he was! Now they talk about going on a long vacation to Europe someday together or the sort of people their children will grow up to be! They share their private hopes and wishes that way—which is one of the reasons they have such a close relationship!

. . . Peter writes love poems! Maybe someday he'll give them to some lucky girl—or even have them published! But in the meantime, he just enjoys getting all his love feelings down on paper!

. . . Micky writes letters to people he's mad at! He says all the things he wants to get off his chest about what's making him angry—and then doesn't mail them. If he did this during the day, he's afraid he might be tempted to give people these letters and later he'd be sorry. But this way, he feels much better without hurting anybody!

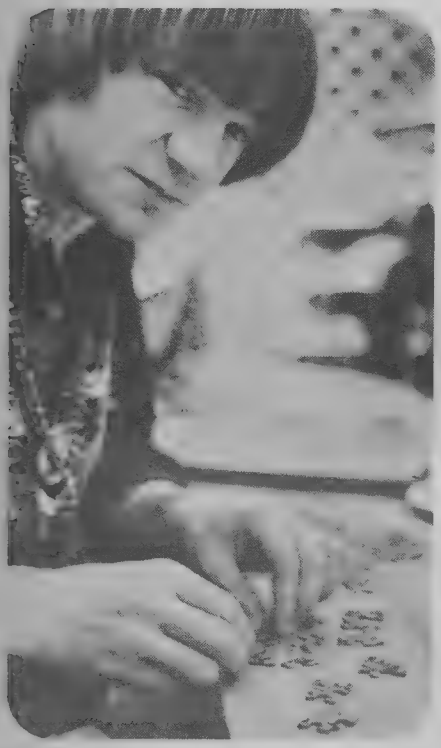
. . . Davy keeps a diary! It's really like a travel journal and in it he writes all about his adventures in the United States and about some of the funny things that have happened with The Monkees.



Pete's pleasures are often rather simple. Give him a snack, a puzzle (and a gal to help him) and he's very happy!!

. . . Mike listens to records! It's so relaxing—and it sets a romantic mood for him and Phyllis. They sit together hand-in-hand listening to beautiful music together!

. . . Micky wire-sculpts! He gets

There are a lot of things Micky does when nobody's really watching! Our candid photographer caught him with camera and balloons—maybe off to take pix of Sam!

Mike and Phyllis Nesmith make a dreamy-looking couple. Here, they join forces with Micky and Sam at a restaurant. We'd hate to eavesdrop, but . . . listen in . . .

The truth's being told! The facts are out in the open! In this snoopy,

THE HERD'S SECRET PASSIONS!

THE HERD . . . likes to travel in style when they go on tour—which means in a car equipped with a radio, so they can relax . . . member Peter Frampton reads stories you wouldn't expect a pop star to read—Grimm's Fairy Tales and Alice in Wonderland are two of his latest reading ventures . . . Andy Brown's a strict vegetarian. He believes it's important from a nutritional point of view. Also, he doesn't think animals should be slaughtered! . . . Gary Taylor's a newspaper bug—he reads them from cover to cover. And if he's really bored, he has no objection to reading a six-day-old newspaper he's read before! . . . Andrew Steele's the gourmet of the group! He just hates it when he's on tour and the best thing a menu boasts is eggs and chips! . . . All the boys enjoy playing cards—but only for points, never for money. They also like to play card games no one else has heard of—like "13's" or "5's!"

LULU—THE DESIGNING LASS!

Pretty, versatile Lulu has added still another talent to her long list—she's become sort-of a fashion consultant! Because Lulu has excellent taste, fans are constantly asking her where she buys her gear. So Lulu decided to put her fashion sense into action. Of course, she's not a dress designer, but she does have outasite ideas about how a gal should dress! She signed with Lenbry Fashions, a subsidiary of the Calico Printers Association, the largest textile and fashion group in Britain—with over 350 shops and stores. Now she's working in conjunction with two designers—passing on her ideas about style and design for coats, suits, dresses and slacks. It's called the Lulu collection and should be in British shops already. Lulu wants all her fans to be able to buy her designs, so a special company called "Lulu by Lenbry" will market her fashions throught the world. That means the next time you see Lulu wearing a groovy outfit, chances are you'll be able to buy one just like it!!!

CHRIS CROSBY'S PRIVATE FEAR!

Handsome, blue-eyed Chris Crosby's one of the most talented young newcomers on today's scene. Yet Chris did a lot of good, hard thinking before he took the plunge into the entertainment field. You see, Chris comes from a very influential show-biz family. His father's Bob Crosby and his uncle's the celebrated Bing! This background made Chris fear people would never accept him on his own merits. He felt if he was successful, people would say he "made it" because his uncle and father were behind him!

So at first, Chris veered away from show business. He attended the University of Southern California and spent two full years studying pre-med. But then the performing bug started to hit him hard. He'd always enjoyed singing, but now he started to realize he really had a good voice of his own. And he does! His fab voice can span two full octaves and he has control over everything from rock to light opera.

Another thing Chris discovered was that he liked to entertain people. He sang for friends, at parties and in school productions. All this gave him a very satisfied feeling inside. Chris was now developing enough confidence in his own talent and ability to feel he [illegible] business profession and has been singing since 1966.

Today, Chris is very happy with the choice he made. He's already achieved tremendous success and he's destined for more! In fact, he'd eventually like to compose his own music and go into acting. But most important, he knows the praise for him isn't because he's a Crosby . . . it's because he's Chris!

There are always a lot of celebrities there and the Italian food's absolutely the end! Even though there'd be tons of famous people around you, you'd find the atmosphere very romantic—especially with a guy like Dino!

After dinner, it's a sure bet you'd end up in one of two places—The Daisy or The Factory. They're both private "in" discotheque-clubs. The main difference between them is The Factory's larger, and serves food. But both places are equally swingin'! And, by the way, he's a sensational dancer!

When Dino's [illegible] and your [illegible] feet hurt so much you could dance no longer, he'd probably challenge you to a game of pool. The Factory and The Daisy both have pool tables in a special room and everyone always plays. It's half the fun of going there!

Dino would most likely win the game! But being the gentleman he is, you'd be taken out for hamburgers by the winner! Of course, that would mean more time to talk and get to know your groovy date!

Finally, the evening would be over. You and Dino would get back into his beautiful Lamborgine and head for home. Could you think of a more outasite evening?

WALTER KOENIG'S CONFESSIONS!

Walter Koenig (pronounced Kay-nig) is his real name . . . his birthday's [illegible] . . . he attended Grinnel College in Iowa for two years as a pre med student . . . he moved to California after his second year of college . . . he graduated from UCLA . . . he wore a wig for the first couple of "Star Trek" episodes, ('cause his own hair was too short) but he uses his own hair now . . . he's been married for two years to an actress named Judy Levitt . . . he was encouraged to go into acting by a dramatic teacher at UCLA . . . he enrolled at The Neighborhood Playhouse in New York after he graduated from college . . . before he went back to L.A. to try to get into television, he struggled with several off-Broadway productions and worked as an orderly at Mount Sinai Hospital . . . he adores his Hungarian Sheepdog "Pan," named after a Greek God . . . he'd love to own a Mercedes Benz . . . he's just completed writing a full-length film entitled "I Wish I May." Now he intends to produce it and play the lead. His wife will also star in it—and his dog, "Pan," will have a part, too!

LEONARD NIMOY FINDS COURAGE

Leonard Nimoy, who's become successful and popular in his TV role of Mr. Spock, had a long, hard climb up the ladder of success. Twelve years ago, he set out to become an actor. He already had a wife, a year-old daughter and a newborn son. He had ambition, faith, and a family that was behind him all the way—but no money. Hollywood was slow to recognize his talent and Leonard was forced to work at a variety of odd jobs to keep his family sheltered and fed! During the next twelve years, Leonard worked as—cab driver, soda jerk, movie usher and pet shop employee. Of course, he acted during this time, too. He appeared in "Rawhide," "The Virginian," "Dr. Kildare," "The Outer Limits" and "Profiles In Courage." He also made two movies—"Seven Days In May" and "The Balcony." However, he had to fight and scrounge for every job he got. He was not a star!

But Leonard wasn't bitter—he just kept trying harder! And while he tried to help himself, he also tried to help other people. He worked for Synanon—an organization which tries to cure and rehabilitate drug addicts. He held drama classes there in the evenings. He also talked with these kids—trying to help them, giving them strength, teaching them not to pity themselves and fight to stay on the road to recovery. And it was from these kids that he gained courage in his own weak moments. When he felt he'd never achieve success and was ready to give it all up, he'd think of these kids. He helped them . . . and by helping them, he fought off his own self-pity and renewed his own faith and courage.

Then his own break came. Gene Roddenberry, the producer of "The Lieutenant," saw him perform in an episode on that series. He promised Leonard if he ever made a science fiction show, he was going to put pointed ears on him and use him. Leonard had to wait a few more television seasons, but Roddenberry finally made good on his promise. Leonard was cast as Mr. Spock on "Star Trek" and became an overnight sensation!

Success didn't change Leonard, though. He's not a man who's forgotten his humble beginnings. He still works for Synanon in every way he can. He won't forget . . . or stop helping . . . the kids who helped give him courage when he so desperately needed it!

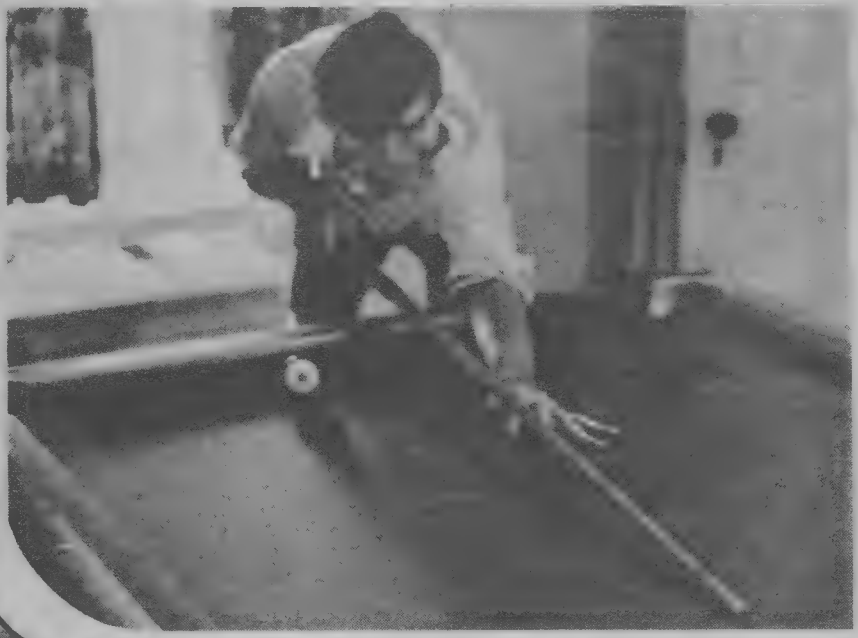
Jim loves girls—like you!

Don't tell a soul, but we think John's doing a little daydreaming! Could he be thinking about cars, boats, travel, money—or perhaps a certain girl?!

Sink it in the outside pocket, Bill! With a steady eye and an even steadier hand, Bill practices his pool shots. Care to challenge him to a game?



THE COWSILL house is always jumping—no matter how late it is! Somebody's always awake doing something very private or unexpected! Here are the very dark doings of the swinging C's . . .

. . . Bob takes showers! His fav time is around three in the morning! There's only one shower in the whole huge Coweill house and in the daytime there's never enough hot water—or somebody's always in the bathroom! So that's about the only time Bob can bathe. The only trouble is that his brothers wish he wouldn't sing quite so loudly while he's at it!

. . . Bill works on his novel! He's very secretive about it. He teases his family by saying they can find out what it's all about when they buy a copy at the book shop. The only time he can work in absolute privacy is late at night. Then he's sure nobody will peek or try to snatch away the papers and try to read it!

. . . Barry practices football tackles! Like any good football player, he keeps his best moves a secret—until he uses them! That way he's bound to win almost every game he plays!

. . . John sneaks down for midnight snacks! During the day there's not enough room at the table and The C's eat in shifts! If John is on the second shift, most of the food's gone by the time he gets there. So he keeps one step ahead of the others—by getting there a day ahead!

. . . Paul strolls along the widows' walk on top of the house! It's exciting to stand way up there on the roof looking out toward the sea and up at millions of stars. He has fun imagining he's a watchman looking out for ships or pirates or he tries to identify the different patterns, like the big dipper or the milky way!

. . . Bob and Captain McCormick, the family ghost, go haunting! Bob says

THE COWSILLS

Something "funny" happens to The Cowsills when evening falls! They may he's found his best hideaways around the house that way. Sometimes Bob just likes to disappear and be alone to think and dream. So at night he explores the house for secret corners. He knows it better than anybody else by now—which is why nobody can find him when he pulls a disappearing act! And if any chains clank in the middle of the night or a ghostly figure appears, The C's know by now that it isn't the Captain—it's Bob teasing them!

. . . Bill studies! The C house is never completely quiet, but at night it's the quietest it ever gets! So Bill has a chance to concentrate on his school work without voices or music or the sounds of people running all around him in the background! He keeps those high marks of his by hitting the books at odd hours like that!

. . . Barry chooses his clothes for the next day! If he waited till the morning, whatever he wanted to wear would be gone—on somebody else's back! Susan loves to wear his shirts and John digs his jeans. So Barry gets his clothes together and puts them near his bed—before anyone can grab them!

. . . John works on his moon ship! During the day, he'd get too much teasing about that kind of project! So when everyone else is in bed, he takes out his tools and works away to his heart's content. By the next morning, he's hidden all the traces of his work. If John ever disappears—look up first, 'cause he may be more successful than you'd expect!

. . . Paul practices his trumpet! He's the newest family addition to the group and he wants to sound as great as he possibly can. So he takes his trumpet out into the yard, sits down beneath a tree, leans back comfortably and plays away! The only person who really encourages that (if the others are in bed, they want to sleep) is Susan. She says

Future housewives and homemakers need some "boning up," too! Susie does her cooking when nobody's around—so she can reap the yummy benefits herself!

And Bob? Well, when he's all alone, he gets ideas about everything! Like songs, and future plans or past experiences. Now, he looks as though he's "prankish!"

CONTEST! WIN A DATE

Want Sajid to wine and dine you? It can happen—one magic night!

Here's Saj with his good friend Celia Murray off in the country for a day of fun. Maybe you'll go, too!

HOW WOULD YOU like to win a date with that fab Indian charmer—Sajid? Sound impossible? It isn't! The lucky gal who wins this super contest will meet, get to know and actually go out with Saj! Fab? Indescribable? You bet!

Just think what it could mean—you and Saj sipping cokes at your fav soda shop, you and Saj taking a leisurely stroll after a yummy lunch, you and Saj—together! The kind of date you want will be completely your choice. But whatever you choose, the guy at your side will be Sajid Khan!

And it's an absolute cinch to win! All you have to do is see how many legitimate words you can make out of Sajid Khan's name. Using the letters S-A-J-I-D-K-H-A-N, make your new words and write them in the blank box in the coupon. Don't use any letters twice in one word unless it appears twice in Sajid's name. The words can be any length and proper names are admissible. Could anything be easier?

Now fill in the rest of the coupon and send it to SAJID DATE CONTEST, TEEN WORLD, 201 Park Avenue South, New York, N.Y. 10003. Put on your thinking caps, fans, and start making up those words. Any ties will be put in a barrel and one winner will be chosen. The decision of the Editors is final. But you've got to hurry, 'cause the contest closes July 8th. And you want to be eligible for a date with dreamy, black-eyed Saj! ●●●

WITH SAJID!

Sajid's very eager to meet and get to know his fans! And the most romantic way to do it is to be alone, together!

DAVY JONES

GROUP GOSSIP YOU Won't BELIEVE!

BILL & BOB COWSILL

WELL, I'm back again, luvs, with more in groovy gossip—from a strictly British point of view . . .

My MONKEE informers tell me MICKY DOLENZ has composed and produced a musical suite for galfriend SAMANTHA JUSTE. Could anything be more romantic? . . . As for DAVY JONES, he's not letting go of his heart-strings so easily. Can't say we blame him when gals like SALLY FIELD, DEANA MARTIN, TINA SINATRA and CHRISTINE COPELAND are so fascinated by his English charm! . . . Another girl-captivating Monkee, PETER TORK, really pulled a switch on our English photographers during his recent London visit. Peter was being interviewed at a big press conference. The photographers, who showed up with their cameras, of course, were very surprised to find that Peter had one around his neck, too. And every time someone tried to snap a pix of him, he'd put his camera up to his eye, grin broadly and say, "cheese!"

PAUL McCARTNEY and his long-time galfriend JANE ASHER are on a painting kick! The almost-always-together couple will paint just about anything in sight—although their very fav paintable object is a shirt box. Oh, well, each to his own! ! ! . . . Your fab American group THE COWSILLS were a tremendous success in Britain—even though they nearly ate us out of fish and chips! One noteworthy incident occured when six of the nine C's were "ejected" from the restaurant of their London hotel—for singing at the breakfast table—no less! "A waiter came up to us and said the manager had asked if we could stop making noise," The C's Mini-Mama explained. "I said: 'It isn't noise. It's music!' And he said he didn't care what it was—either we stopped, or he'd have to ask us to leave. So, we left and had breakfast in our room," she concluded. The incident was forgotten—with no hard feelings. I imagine The C's figured their British cousins were entitled to eat their breakfast eggs without musical accompaniment!

PETER BLAIRE NOONE, (the lovable HERMAN of HERMAN'S HERMITS) most certainly hasn't been thinking of food! Herm can't stop beaming 'cause he went from 12 st. 2 lb. to 9 st. 7 lb. (to you fans, that means he went from 170 lbs. to 133 lbs.) since last July! For all you diet-minded dollies, here's Herm's diet formula: "I cut out bread, potatoes and drinking Guinness—which is what I used to shovel into myself to try and stop being so skinny," Herm explained. If he gets any thinner, he and TWIGGY will be a perfect match!

ROLLING STONE BRIAN JONES has been a frequent visitor at JIMI HENDRIX' Mable Arch flat! Wonder what those two could be brewing?

MICK JAGGER, the Stones' master-mind, has been carefully supervising the career of his ever-FAITHFUL—MARIANNE. She's already cut several titles under Mick's direction for the new Mother Earth label—one of which could be a single. Mick's one guy who knows how to care for his property!

PETER FRAMPTON, ANDREW STEELE and GARY TAYLOR, all of THE HERD, (our fab British group that's shot to sudden fame) get terribly annoyed with fellow-member ANDY BROWN. It seems Andy's got this really amazing head of hair—which always stays in place. Andy can get caught in a storm or blown by the wind, but you'd never know it from his always-neatly-combed locks! This drives the other Herd members, who are not so hair-lucky, crazy. Let's face it, some guys have it—and some guys just don't! ! ! . . . One group that surely has it is your

THE DOORS

UNION GAP. Their groovy sounds have popped them straight to the top of the U.S. record charts. Our English lasses and lads want them to know they think they're really outasite . . . and hope they'll come and visit—soon!

Everybody's always asking THE WHO how they can afford to break up their instruments at the end of their act. So I did a little snooping and found the boys use two sets of instruments. They play with their own personal instruments until they hit the last number. Then they use a less expensive set for their final song . . . when they do their busting up! Also, they don't blow up their real amplifiers. Smoke bombs are set off behind them and it gives the same effect! Those are the facts—straight from Whosville!

Bet'cha didn't know pony-tailed sensation, RAIDER MARK LINDSAY, is so wild about love beads, he wears them on his wrists as well as around his neck. That's what I call love! . . . another lovin' guy's JIM MORRISON of DOORS fame. He's scored such a hit with gals . . . they're banging his doors down! ! !. . . Speaking of bringing the house down, THE TURTLES did just that when they performed for an L.A. audience—for the first time in a year. The guys were kind-of nervous 'cause the crowd was different from the college gigs they'd been working for the past year. But The T's had no cause for alarm! They really out-did themselves . . . and the cheers at the end of their act proved it!

THE GRASSROOTS

Word has it that LARY LARDEN, of EVERY MOTHERS' SON, has a special steady gal. Hope it's not true! His British gal-fans would be disappointed! . . , BEE GEE ROBIN GIBB says he and his twin brother MAURICE are exact opposites! "He likes shiny cars and I don't," Robin began. "I like ballads while he likes faster music. He dresses up in flashy club clothes and goes off to clubs. I hate late nights and wear comparatively quiet gear. Most of all," Robin concluded, "I'm moody . . . sensitive, as I like to call it . . . and Maurice isn't. You can insult him for hours and it wouldn't bother him. About the only thing we agree on is we shouldn't push the fact we're twins—our fans should know and like us as individuals." Robin has no worries. It's for sure his fans think both guys are groovy—in their own way, natch!

English JEFFERSON AIRPLANE fans are still hopin' the group will make the British scene real soon! . . . And we've also got our ears peeled for your new American group, THE GRASSROOTS!

That about winds up the gossip line from this side of The Atlantic. Till next time . , . bye!

MARK LINDSAY'S LOVE CHART!

At a glance—you can know just what he digs, who he digs and why!

IF YOU know anything about Mark Lindsay, you know he's filled with love—love of life, love of people, love of giving, love of performing, love of love! But what about Mark actually falling in love? That's something that hasn't happened yet. Oh, he's flipped for girls—that goes without saying! But he hasn't found that deep, lasting love which would make him want to marry a girl—yet!

That's 'cause Mark has some very definite ideas about what he wants in his future mate—the girl he'll love completely. He's got a "picture" in his mind of this special girl—her looks, personality, interests, the way she'll dress, the places she'll want to go. Most important, he knows what special "love qualities" she'll have.

Read his love chart very carefully . . . and see if you're the kind of girl Mark could love—forever and ever!

MARK LINDSAY

PERSONALITY

She should be a combination of a gentle, sensitive, soft-spoken girl and a girl who really likes to live—go places and do interesting things! She'd have to be very feminine—a girl who'll depend on him, but still stand on her own!

LOOKS

Mark always digs a pretty face, but his girl will have to possess more than that to win his love. She should be clean and wholesome-looking—her face radiating an inner beauty! Sensitive, deep, brooding eyes . . . much like his own . . . especially catch his fancy!

INTERESTS

It's a must for Mark's gal to like to ride in a fast car (like a Ferrari, natch) with the wind blowing in her face. She also must like to play tennis—Mark's got his own courts. And she's got, got, got to love animals—especially cats!

MARK LINDSAY

CLOTHES

Any gal who likes Mark Lindsay has got to be a top dresser. She should love outasite gear—frilly shirts, groovy boots, fab-looking "in" styles. He doesn't care if her taste goes mini, maxi, romantic, mod or whatever—as long as she looks sharp!

SPECIAL LOVE QUALITY

Perhaps the most important thing to Mark is to find a girl who's happy, gentle and kind—a girl who'll return the great love he'll give to her!

PLACES TO GO

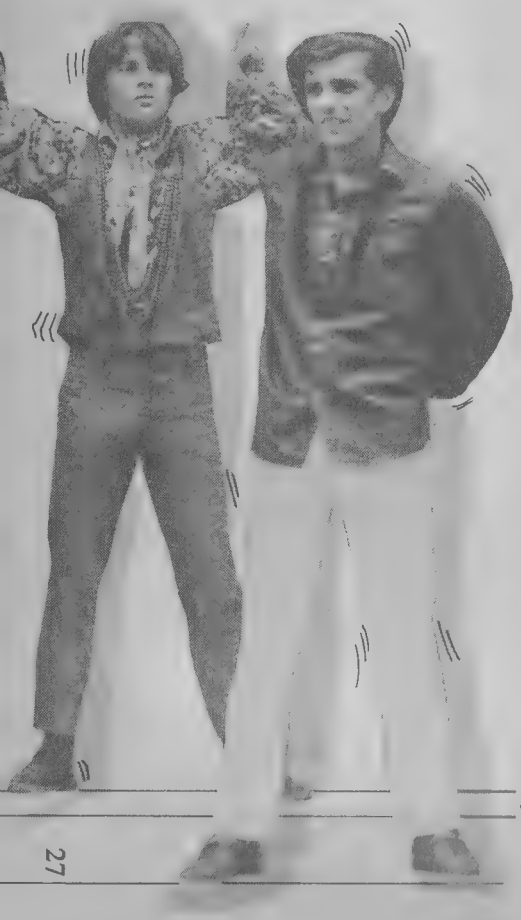
She should like going to clubs to hear good entertainers perform—most especially The Raiders, going for long drives and spending quiet evenings at home with Mark!

MARK LINDSAY

THE RASCALS TREMBLE WITH FEAR!

They shiver and quiver . . . they shake and quake! What's got them scared? It's all here!

Eddie and Felix are really on edge!



THEY'RE quivering and quaking! These Rascal guys are terrified! Here are all the things that make them shiver—and the reasons why . . .

. . . Dino Danelli really shakes when he thinks about sky-diving—but he's considering taking it up as a hobby, anyway! He knows it will be scary jumping out of a plane with nothing between him and the ground but air. But he also thinks it will be a tremendous thrill to fly through the sky like a bird! And the view will be spectacular!

. . . Eddie Brigati's frightened by sudden, loud noises! He hates to hear guns go off or things fall down or explosions from exhaust pipes. It's especially startling in the middle of the night when he's fast asleep and something like that wakes him up!

. . . Felix Cavaliere's afraid of large wild parties and rooms crowded with strangers! He's really a little shy. Facing all those people tends to make him nervous. He'd rather have a quiet and intelligent conversation with a girl he really likes!

. . . Gene Cornish is scared by aggresive girls. He gets all shaky if a girl is very loud or pushy or if her clothes are too way-out and gaudy. He thinks that kind of girl is always trying to get control of a situation and is very self-centered rather than someone who enjoys his company and is sweet and kind!

. . . Dino's frightened in crowded department stores on sale days! People

Dino's jumpy and Gene has a "cautious" look!

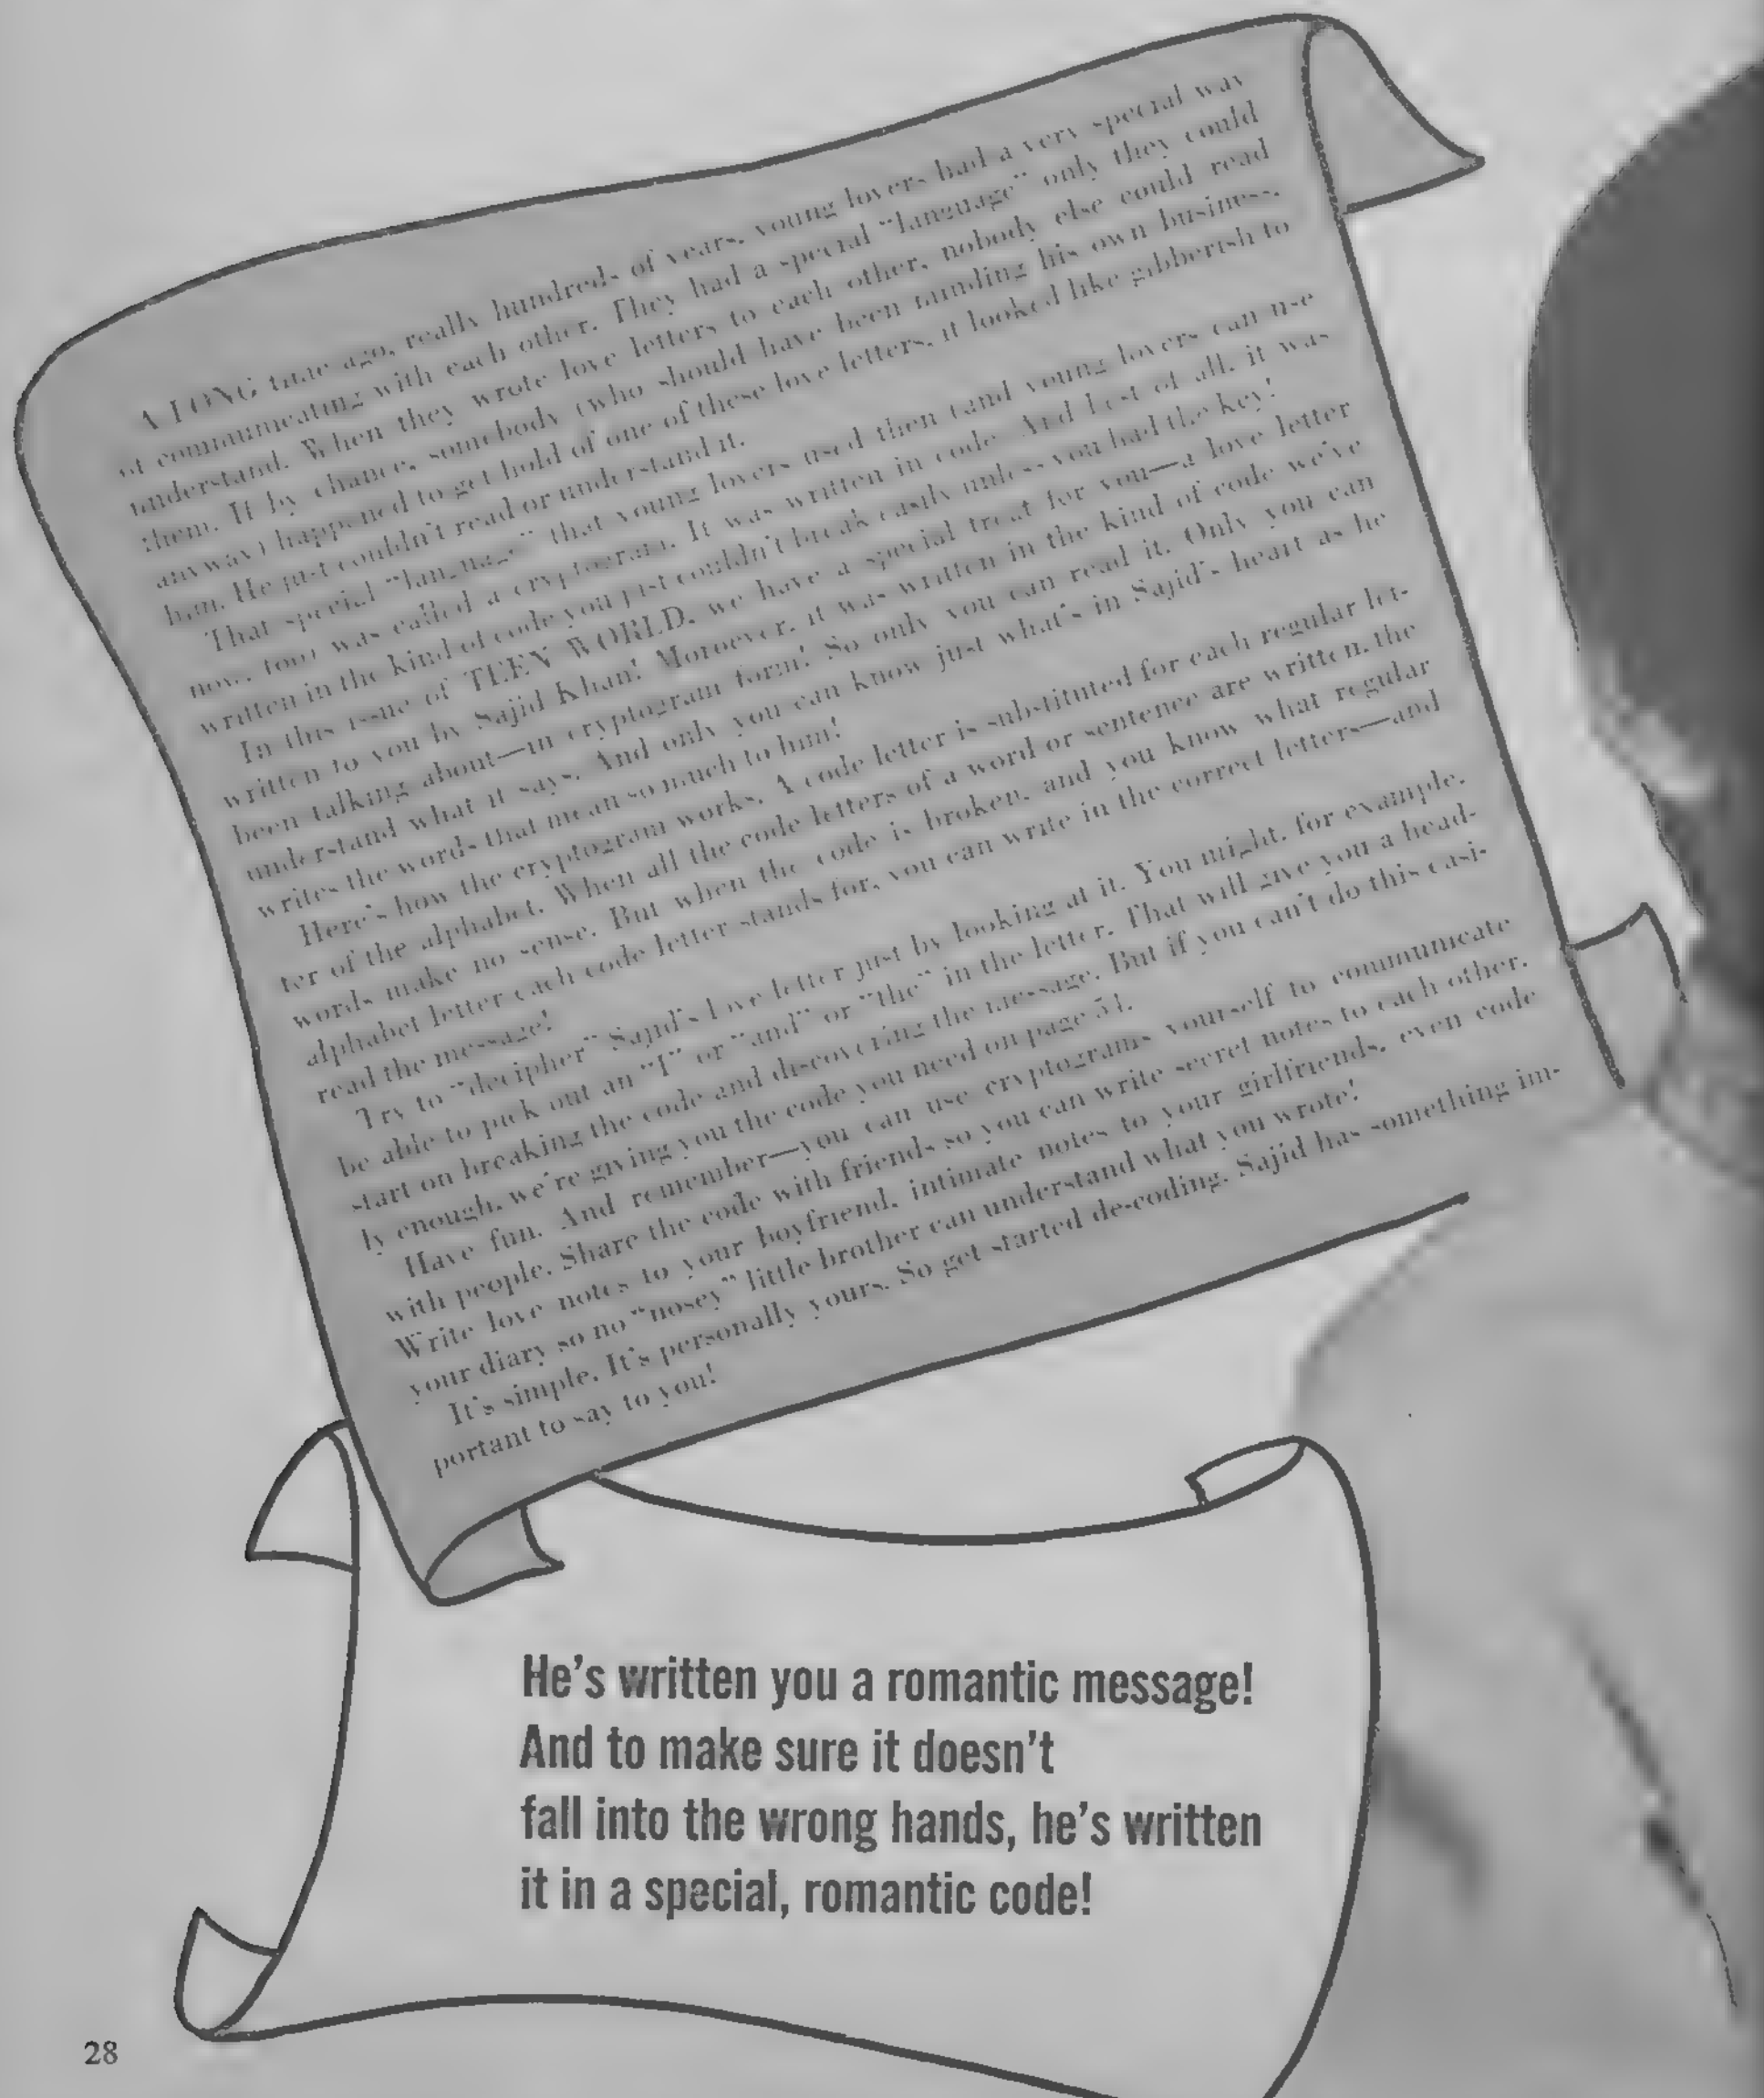
elbow and trample him out of the way trying to get to the bargains. So if he needs a tie or shirt—he'd rather order it than go shopping. A guy can really get hurt doing a simple thing like shop when he's near fifty women at a bargain counter!

. . . Eddie gets very nervous when he thinks of the family he'll have someday! When he's married and has children, he hopes he'll be a good father. But he realizes that all parents make mistakes. And he wonders in what ways he'll goof. He also thinks of some of the things he did that worried his parents—and he trembles at the thought of what his children will do!

. . . Felix's teeth chatter when he hears anybody having an argument! Life is too short and beautiful to waste on fighting. He hates to see people mad at each other, especially because they have no control over themselves and say and do things they're very sorry for later. They end up hurting themselves more than the other guy!

. . . Gene's biggest nightmare is the thought that one day The Rascals will do a concert or show and the audience will just sit there—absolutely silent! They won't applaud or dance or groove with the music. Of course, the way The R's are going, that's all it is—just a nightmare. But it can make him pretty scared when he has that thought. It does one good thing, though. It keeps him constantly working at improving and perfecting his music! ●●●

PRIVATE LOVE



A LONG time ago, really hundreds of years, young lovers had a very special way of communicating with each other. They had a special "language" only they could understand. When they wrote love letters to each other, nobody else could read them. If by chance, somebody (who should have been minding his own business, anyway) happened to get hold of one of these love letters, it looked like gibberish to him. He just couldn't read or understand it.

That "special language" that young lovers used then (and young lovers can use now, too) was called a cryptogram. It was written in the kind of code you just couldn't break easily unless you had the key!

In this issue of TEEN WORLD, we have a special treat for you—a love letter written to you by Sajid Khan! Moreover, it was written in cryptogram form! So only you can read it. Only you can understand what it says. And only you can know just what's in Sajid's heart as he writes the words that mean so much to him!

Here's how the cryptogram works. A code letter is substituted for each regular letter of the alphabet. When all the code letters of a word or sentence are written, the words make no sense. But when the code is broken, and you know what regular alphabet letter each code letter stands for, you can write in the correct letters—and read the message!

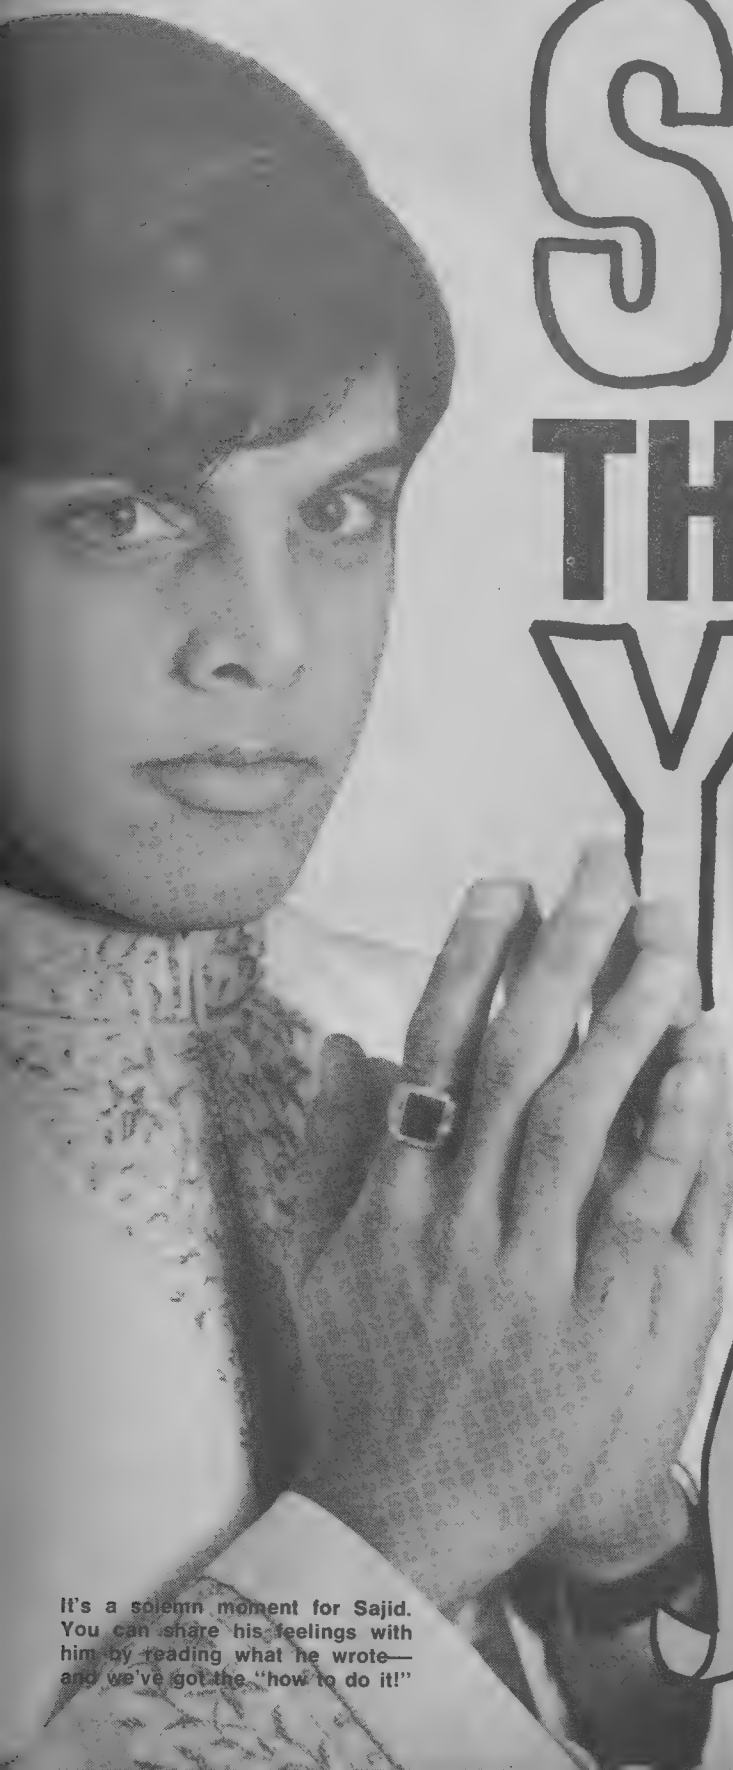
Try to "decipher" Sajid's love letter just by looking at it. You might, for example, be able to pick out an "I" or "and" or "the" in the letter. That will give you a head-start on breaking the code and discovering the message. But if you can't do this easily enough, we're giving you the code you need on page 31.

Have fun. And remember—you can use cryptograms yourself to communicate with people. Share the code with friends so you can write secret notes to each other. Write love notes to your boyfriend, intimate notes to your girlfriends, even code your diary so no "nosey" little brother can understand what you wrote!

It's simple. It's personally yours. So get started de-coding. Sajid has something important to say to you!

He's written you a romantic message! And to make sure it doesn't fall into the wrong hands, he's written it in a special, romantic code!

LETTER FROM SAJID THAT ONLY YOU CAN READ!



It's a solemn moment for Sajid. You can share his feelings with him by reading what he wrote—and we've got the "how to do it!"

There are big doings for Jay and pert Veronica Cartwright. But the glances they're exchanging—what do they mean?

JAY'S

Past, present and future, the women in Jay's life play an important part! Here's a confidential report that tells you just how important they are!

HAVE YOU ever had a "special friend" no one else ever knew about? Someone you shared special times with, personal thoughts, plans, etc.? So has Jay.

His "secret ladies" all hold a special place in his life. And Jay's never told anyone much about them before. Promise not to breathe a word to anyone! Remember, these are Jay's "secret ladies"—and secret they must remain!

THE GIRL WHO WON

When Jay was very young, about six, he had a huge "crush" on his next-door neighbor. Jay had a special nickname for her—"Sparkie!" She had blonde curls, big, round blue eyes, and she loved to play all sorts of games. Sparkie's favorite was "Tag." Of course, Jay was a faster runner than she was and he knew, if he tried, he could beat her. But since he liked her so much, he made sure Sparkie always won. Jay loved the way she looked every time she tagged him "out." Her big eyes would sparkle, and she'd giggle and jump up and down, clapping her hands. You could always find Jay and Sparkie playing together—they were great friends.

THE LADY WHO TAUGHT JAY A LESSON

Right after Jay started school, he met his very first school teacher. Jay remembers how she seemed to him—tall, very stern and straight-laced. But she certainly knew how to keep her students in line. Jay had a hard time the first few days of school. Because he was so full of energy, he loved to be outdoors—running, playing ball, always on-the-go. But when he was in school, it was different. He just couldn't "adjust." He was always jumping up to look out of the window. Or running across the room to one of his friends. Or talking when he wasn't called on. Finally, one day, the teacher took Jay's desk and chair away. She told him that since he didn't like them and wouldn't stay at them, she'd give them to one of the other teachers for her students. Poor Jay—he had to stand for the whole day! The next day, when his teacher asked him if he'd like his desk and chair back, guess what he said . . .

THE GIRL WHO GOT AWAY

When Jay was in the fifth grade, he found his first "love." Sharon was a special girl to Jay because she was fun to be with and always had something nice to say about everyone. She made him feel important—as if he were the only boy in the world. But there was something else about Sharon that made her different from all the other girls—her voice and her laugh. Most of the girls Jay's age had a sort of squeaky, screechy voice and giggly laugh. But that's where Sharon was different. Her voice was soft and sweet—almost as if she were humming. And her laugh was warm and friendly. Whenever Jay heard her laugh, he had to join right in—it was sort-of contagious!

But alas, the course of true love ran into trouble. Sharon's family had to move to another city—which meant that she'd have to change schools. Oh, they promised to write one another. And they did—for awhile. But as it often happens with "long-distance lovers," they seemed to drift apart. Now even though Jay hasn't seen Sharon for quite some time, he'll always remember her—and her warm, wonderful laugh!

FAR-AWAY HEART-THROB

There's a lovely little lady in Jay's life he's extremely fond of. The only problem is—he'll probably never see her again. While Jay was in India filming "Maya," his friend Sajid introduced him to Elanda. Elanda's an Indian girl with long, dark, silken hair and big, almond-shaped eyes. Jay flipped for her at first glance. He loved the way she spoke and her soft, gentle manner. Elanda would take Jay sight-seeing, shopping for some Indian-styled jackets and shirts. Then she'd take Jay to all the quiet restaurants and introduce him to

Sally Field's Special
CATCH-BOY TRICKS!

From "boy-smart" Sally comes advice to win—and woo—him!

WHEN YOU talk about a popular gal, you're talking 'bout Sally Field! This twenty-one-year-old man-charmer has dated . . . and is dating . . . some of Hollywood's best and grooviest guys! At present, her datebook includes Monkee Davy Jones, so handsome Steve Craig and actor Chris George. That's quite a line-up!

How does she do it, you ask? Well, we all know Sally's pretty, bright, fun to be with and talented. Those are all important qualities! But it takes more than that to catch a guy—and keep him! Sally's got some fab ideas of her own on how to win a boy's heart. Some people would say she had a special kind of "knowing" . . . and others would say she was just plain "boy-smart!" But we think Sally's methods are the kind that can be learned and applied by every girl. So we'll call them catch-boy tricks! They are all right here, girls . . . so get busy reading . . . and good luck to you!

"Going my way?" Sally seems to be saying. And Steve Craig is!

1. Sally says . . . the first step in catching any boy is being well-groomed. You don't necessarily have to be the most ravishing girl in the entire world. A perfect face, perfect features and an absolutely perfect figure aren't all that vital. But it's very important to be neat and clean-looking—at all times. That means your hair should always be clean, your clothes should be fresh-looking and well pressed—whether you're wearing your best dress or dungarees and an old shirt! Remember, your appearance is the first thing a boy will notice!

2. Sally says . . . that it's very important for a girl to maintain her independence—while still being feminine. No, that does not mean you should go move out of your house, of course. But—you should be capable of standing on your own two feet. A boy doesn't like a girl who's constantly hanging on his arm. He's impressed with a girl who can get along with his friends, a girl who has outside interests of her own, a girl he can take to a party—and who'll fit in with the crowd

THEY DON'T KNOW WE HAVE!
Stop and look! These pix will leave you breathless! They're so-o-o hot!
You can tell Eddie Brigati's had a hectic time singing on stage! But Strum, strum and plunk, plunk! Our pals Charlie and Freddie tune up—to give you a tune!
Micky's sure getting a chuckle out of Davy's unique get-up! But it's not permanent . . . it's just for fun!

Here's an inside look at how The Cowsills record. They are casual—but very thorough!!!!!!!

Is this a private meeting of minds for Peter and Micky? They're picking books to make them even smarter!

Aw, gee! Maurice Gibb sure has a problem! But don't let on you know!
Grassroot Creed Bratton and his wife JoAnn are dog-lovers, as you can see!
Don't tell anyone, but Dick Cowsill helps around the house! How handy!

Tommy James and the Shondells are pretty neat guys! They're sweeping!

DAVY'S LITTLE BLACK BOOK-EXPOSED!

BUSY business executives have them. Pretty secretaries have them. World travelers have them. Playboys have them. Monkees have them . . . like Davy Jones. Yes, Davy has a "little black book" which he keeps with him most of the time. It's a private little book, because it contains some private ideas, some personal doings, some secret information and even a few unlisted telephone numbers! Would you like to take a peek into parts of Davy's LBB— and see just what's inside? Okay. Start looking . . .

Davy's personal doings are revealed for the first time! Come spy on them!

THE BEATLES GET BRAINWASHED!

Strange things are happening within The Beatles' heads! All the scoop on this fabulous group is here!

IT'S HARD to believe that four strong-willed guys like The Beatles could be brainwashed! But it's true! And it happened to each of them in a different way—'cause there are different ways a person can be brainwashed. For example, you could be talked into something you had no idea of doing. Or you could become so obsessed with an idea or belief, you can hardly think of anything else . . . or do anything without relating to it! Here are the exact ways it happened to each of The B's.

UP FOR LAFFS

Hi, Teens,

Now's a good time to buy "All-Day Suckers." They have to make them bigger because the days are longer.

Longer days means summer's coming, with lots of free time. But before vacation, there are exams ahead for most teens. Still, when you've got some free time, think of us. Send us the latest laff. Look at your school paper for one and send it in. We'll credit you and your paper. Send contributions to:

LOVE IS EVOL
(spelled backwards)

"Love is wonderful," said Janie. "Since I've been encouraging Mark to work harder in school so we can get scholarships together, he's become an A student."

"Well," said Barbara, "he may have made a scholar out of himself in two terms. But I know a boy who was an A student, and he met a girl who made a dope of him in two hours."

Moral: See title above

TEACH AND PUPE

High-mark Senior: What would you advise me to read after graduation, sir?

English Teach: The Help Wanted page.

X MARKS THE SPOT

Candy: Does the math teacher like you?

Sugar: I guess he does. Every paper I get back is covered with those little X's, you know, like kisses.

LAST WORDS

Gertrude: If Miss Smith doesn't take back what she said, I'm not coming to History anymore.

Berthold: What did she say?

Gertrude: "Get out and don't you come to History anymore!"

OUCH

Archie: How'd you get that bump on your head?

Bald: My sister hit me with an oak leaf.

Archie: An oak leaf! That couldn't have hurt.

Bald: Oh, yeah! It was the oak leaf from the center of the dining table.

DO YOUR THING

Bonnie: Buck is such a shutter bug, he got arrested.

Clyde: Why, did he take a picture he shouldn't have?

Bonnie: He doesn't stop at taking pictures—he takes cameras.

SUGGESTIONS

Policeman: Why did you throw the pot of tulips at this man?

Bloomer: Because of the ad.

Policeman: What ad?

Bloomer: "Say it with flowers."

THE GROUPS' QUIZ

Answer each question with the name of a popular group.

1. A man seeded his lawn but nothing came up. Finally, he added some Turf Builder. One morning he came out and saw a green haze over the ground. What did he say?

Answer: "Ah, man. The Grass Roots."

2. Two couples went to the movies. The first couple left early. As the second couple was about to leave, they found a pair of ski gloves on the seat. They couldn't tell if the gloves belonged to the girl or her boyfriend. What did they say to each other?

Answer: "Her man's? Her mitts?"

3. A shoe company was trying out leather. They had a track team wear different shoes to see which pair were the last to wear out. What did they name those shoes?

Answer: "The Sole Survivors."

AMBITION

I'd rather be a could be
For I couldn't be an are.
For a could be is a maybe
With a chance of going far.
I'd rather be a has been
Than a might have been, I sware.
For a might have been has never been,
But a has was once an are.

AD AND SUBTRACT

A camp for overweight teens has this slogan—

"Send your child to our camp in July and get 3/4 of him back in August."

WHAT'S IN A BIRTHSTONE?

Soapstone—for a laundress
Cornerstone—for architects
Blarneystone—for politicians
Touchstone—for borrowers
Yellowstone—for a tourist
Cobblestone—for shoemakers
Keystone—for locksmiths
Milestone—for a driver
Tombstone—for a pedestrian

ADVICE

Girls, to this advice give heed
In controlling men:
If at first you don't succeed,
Cry, cry again.

Thanks to June Levi,
Stamford, Conn.

PUZZLERS

What's wrong with these statements? Can you spot the errors? Eight-out-of-Eight means You-Are-Great!

1. The first thing the Pilgrims did when they landed on Plymouth Rock was to plant the Stars and Stripes.

2. An archaeologist digging in Italy found a Roman coin dated 69 B.C.

GUESS what? Once again, TEEN WORLD is asking for your help with our feature, "Group Soup!" We want you to make up a "soup" (or situation) involving the groups you love! Don't be surprised to see your name and address printed along with your "soup" in one of the next issues of TEEN WORLD. Just imagine . . . your name, appearing right next to The Monkees, Raiders, Hermits or Beatles!

All you have to do to be "published" is to make up a situation that we can use. (See our "soups" for some ideas.) First, tell us who your favorite group is. Then tell us the characters involved in your "soup," where they are and what they're doing and saying. (See the detailed coupon.) You can use one or part of any group. You can also use different members of different groups in the same "soup."

Fill in all the information on the coupon. If you need more room, attach a sheet of paper. Send the coupon to GROUP SOUP, TEEN WORLD, 201 Park Avenue South, New York, N. Y. 10003.

Then watch for your "soup" in TEEN WORLD. If we use it, all the credit will go to you! • • •

TW LOVE

Dear Editor:

I've just finished reading "Sajid and Jay—We Confess , . . We Kiss!" in the June issue of TEEN WORLD. It was fantastic! I've never written to a teen magazine before but that story was so super-fab, I just had to drop you a line. The pin-ups of Saj and Jay were almost too much for the eye to behold, too! And when it comes to keeping your readers up-to-date on all the happenings of the stars, "Star Light, Star Bright" certainly rates an "A" with me. That's the greatest gossip column ever! I'm so sold on TW, I've got all my friends buying it, too! When we're all together reading and grooving on TW—we call it a TEEN WORLD love-in!

F. Fernandez, Jersey City, N.J.

EDITOR'S NOTE: As they say, love makes the (Teen) World go 'round!

BEATLED-OUT

Dear Editor:

That's it! I can't stand it anymore. One more article about The Beatles and I go over the side! Everywhere I turn it's Beatles, Beatles, Beatles. And your magazine offers no relief whatsoever! When they first became popular, about four years ago, I thought they were cute. But now I'm bored to tears. What's so great about them? There are lots of other groups that are far better. And their big "thing" with meditation and all that nonsense! And their friend the Maharishi-what's-his-name! Ugh! Why doesn't TEEN WORLD give some up-and-coming group a chance? I think I'll get a few of my friends, who feel the same way, to start an "overthrow The Beatles campaign!" On the side, we'll also do a little overthrowing of your crummy magazine!

Lana W., Frederick, Md.

FAITHFUL TO THE END

Dear Editor:

Would you like to know why I love TEEN WORLD and why I'll never, never stop reading it? Because you're faithful! No matter how many new stars or groups pop up on the horizon, you always have room for the good old groups, like The Beatles, The Raiders, The Hermits, etc. Of course, you're right up-to-the-minute with all the new personalities, like The Lemon Pipers, The Herd, The Cowsills and Sajid. But you still keep up with the "established" ones.

Thanks for not forgetting anyone!

J.S., Hanover, Mass.

DOUBLE WINNER

Dear Editor:

I can't believe you've out-done yourself—twice! The TEEN WORLDS for April and June were two of the best issues I've ever seen! Every article was simply colossal! "What The Raiders Won't Talk About" really told me a lot about that fab group. "How To Catch A Young Rascal," "The Beatles After Dark," "The Cowsills' Catastrophe," and those "wowy" group pix, in the April issue, were just too, too much. And your June mag was a power-packed follow-up. Some of my absolute favs were "Close-Up On Jon Provost," "Davy's Daring New Life," "Herman—Alone In The Dark," and that pix of Ringo's wife, Maureen, in a black wig! I'd like to compliment all the Editors at TEEN WORLD on your magazine. In my opinion, it's the best teen magazine a swingin' teen can buy!

Barbara C., Tampa, Fla.

EDITOR'S NOTE: And we'd like to compliment you—on your good taste!

HOOKED

Dear Editor:

I can't find the words to tell you how super-fab I think TEEN WORLD is. I'm addicted to it. I can't pass a newsstand without picking up a copy. Your June issue was so tremendous, I almost flipped-out and bought two copies! My favorite stories were "The Cowsills' 50 Secret Scoops," "Cuddly, Candid, Group Pix," "Sally Field—The Men In Her Life" and "From The Raiders Diaries." What would we teens do without you??? You're our contact with all our fav people. Keep up the good work! We love you!

B.D., Kearny, N.J.

POPULAR PEN PAL

Dear Editor:

I've never been so happy in my entire life. While reading my April copy of TEEN WORLD, I came across a very cute boy in your "Pen Pal" section and I decided to write to him. Well, he answered my letter and we've been writing to one another every week. He seems to be a wonderful person and we have a lot in common. I think it's great when two complete strangers can become such good friends. "Pen Pals" gives you an opportunity to learn about people and customs that are much different from your own. I'm sure there are many more of your readers who feel as I do. And we have TEEN WORLD to thank.

M.N., Naugatuck, Conn.

KEY TO SAJID'S CRYPTOGRAM ON PAGE 29

HERE'S the key to the code that breaks Sajid's love letter cryptogram. On the left side in each column of letters is the code letter (the letter that's used in Sajid's cryptogram). On the right side of each column is the plain letter. Here's how it works. Whenever you see an "A" in Sajid's love note, substitute a "G". Whenever you see a "B", substitute a "P", etc. For example, "AVY" would really stand for "GOT." Okay? Have fun!

TEEN WORLD and I can't believe the contest—it's outasite! "Win Your Heart's Desire From Sajid, Jay, Jon!"—my dream come true! The most difficult part of that contest was trying to decide which of those fab stars I'd like to receive my "heart's desire" from. I love them all!

I really groove on TW. But can you print more and more pix of Micky Dolenz? My friends and I think he's the grooviest of the groovy!

Terry B., Pontiac, Mich.

FED UP

Dear Editor:

I'm writing this letter for one reason and one reason only. I want to know one thing—who's the bigger fool, you or me? You, for writing the type of trash you do, or me, for buying my first and last copy of this type of trash? You can't be serious. I mean nobody really believes the stuff you print, do they? If there are people around who enjoy reading articles like "The Cowsills—50 Secret Scoops," or "EMS—We Snitch On Each Other," I hope I never meet them! They'd have to be "looney!" Some of the other things in your June issue were just as bad. Like that ridiculous "Cuddly, Candid, Group Pix"—ugh! Could you imagine cuddling up with Micky Dolenz? But I must give you credit—you're consistent—consistently obnoxious! Well, the only hope I have for you is that you'll all come to your senses before it's too late!

Rita S., Athens, Tenn.

Miracle Skin Cream Discovery

Fades Pimples* and Ugly Brown Spots

On Face, Hands, Neck and Arms

LEAVES SKIN SOFTER, LIGHTER, CLEARER...YOUNGER LOOKING

Cosmetic scientists have recently developed a new kind of white skin cream called FAYD which promises not only to cause ugly brown spots, freckles and surface discolorations to dim and fade, but also helps dry up and clear away *externally caused outer skin pimples, blackheads and blemishes. Wrinkles (tiny surface skin lines) and crows feet also are softened and made less noticeable. So potent is this cream that many have reported noticeable results in 48 hours, sometimes over-night. For women, it helps clear complexions. For men, it softens roughness, even helps reduce enlarged pores. For "teenagers, it starts helping to dry up surface pimples the moment it is applied. For every member of the family it coaxes the return of clearer, smoother, younger-looking skin. Called by many "nature's clear complexion cream"

FOR FACE

FOR HANDS

FOR NECK

FOR BACK

New FAYD Penetrates

Outer Skin Surface — Helps Nature Restore 'Teen-age Complexion FAST

FAYD is not a cover-up. It is a medicated cream that penetrates under the skin surface to lighten clots of pigment which cause brown spots, freckles and other blemishes which show on the skin. And, because it helps cleanse the pores thoroughly it causes them to shrink . . . often to more normal size.

KEEP SKIN CLEAR THIS EASY WAY

So, if excessive exposure to sun and wind is making your skin dry, spotty, flaky, blemished, rough, red, weather-beaten or old looking, now is the time to start using FAYD. Continued use as directed should work wonders in helping to keep your skin silken-smooth, clear, spotless and lovely.

MAKE EASY 30 DAY TEST

For best results use it twice a day as directed. Smooth it on before retiring—it works while you sleep. Then in the morning apply it before making up, notice the fresh, dewy, satin-like feel, under the powder.

Use FAYD For Spotless, Younger-Looking Skin Beauty

- fades brown spots, freckles, muddiness
- helps keep complexion soft, smooth—more translucent
- helps soften tiny age lines, crow's feet
- helps enlarged pores to reduce
- helps clear externally caused pimples

7 DAY TRIAL

You are not asked to risk one penny in making a most convincing test of FAYD. Simply send name, address and $3.00 . . . . . for 90 days demonstration supply of FAYD. We pay postage. Use it for one week, then if you are not thrilled with your younger looking, clearer skin beauty, return unused portion for refund of purchase price. If C.O.D. $1.00 deposit required and postal charges added. Rush order today.

SALLY FIELD'S SPECIAL CATCH-BOY TRICKS!

instead of hanging on to him for dear life!

3. Sally says . . . that boys are just as "insecure" as girls are. And, therefore, it's a girl's job to make a guy feel important. There are lots of good ways to do this! You can do something special for him—like baking his favorite cake, sending him a cute card for no reason at all or picking something up for him when you know he's very busy! Another thing you can do is compliment him if you honestly like something he has or has done. That's very flattering to his ego.

4. Sally says . . . that boys like girls who are interested in what they're interested in. That doesn't mean you should drop all your hobbies to take up his. But if he's interested in sports, learn something about them. If he likes cars, politics, music, stamp collections or whatever—bone up on that. The knowledge will never hurt you. And just think how flattered he'll be to know you like him enough to keep up with his interests!

5. Sally says . . . that it's very important to be a girl at all times. The minute you've become a boy's buddy—you've lost the love battle! One good thing to do is change your looks once in a while—try a different hairstyle, experiment with a new makeup (nothing kooky, though—a boy doesn't like a girl who looks too made-up) or wear a different style of dress—something soft and feminine! He'll notice! Another good trick is to let the "child" in you out—once in a while. Tell him you'd like to go to the zoo or for a walk in the park. He'll think it's cute and it can turn out to be very romantic!

TWIGGY

"It's a book for people like me, who don't read very much. That's why I put in over 100 pictures that show and tell about all the super things that have happened to me."

Lesley Hornby was a skinny, anonymous high-school dropout. Today, as TWIGGY, she is a 98-pound multimillionairess who is better known than the Prime Minister of her country. In her new book, Twiggy gives her candid views on, almost everything!

... About her boyfriend/manager

"His name hadn't always been Justin de Villeneuve. He was born Nigel John Davis. His first job was training to be a winetaster, but he got drunk and they fired him."

... About her parties with the famous

"The Duke of Bedford was wearing a white badge on his lapel. It said 'Panic Button' and when you pressed the center a signal sprang out of the top saying 'Kiss Me'!"

"In me book I tell you all about my meetings with Princess Margaret and Lord Snowdon, Antonioni, Princess Radziwill (Jackie Kennedy's sister). I even reprint the letter Prince Philip wrote to me!"

..."I'm rich enough to talk the way I want"

Twiggy tells you about her first experience on the "American telly" with Woody Allen ("I didn't intend to put him down"), about her encounters with Robert Mitchum, Danny Thomas, Richard Harris, Tony Curtis, Eva Marie Saint.

Twiggy tells exactly how she applies her makeup to achieve the famous "Twiggy look." She reveals how to use the clothing you now have to effect the new "Bonnie and Clyde" style. Yes, Twiggy tells you, in her own words and over 100 photographs (most never before published!) how to develop poise, become more popular and more attractive to others.

Read TWIGGY for 10 days, no risk!

THE MONKEES— WHAT THEY DARE TO DO IN THE DARK!

his best inspiration very late at night! He also has a chance to experiment with new art forms and work with new materials to his heart's content. And if they don't come out exactly right—there's nobody around to tease him!

. . . Peter re-decorates his living room! He makes plans about where he'll put new furniture or how he's going to fit in more book shelves. He moves things around and adds pictures or changes the colors of the cushions! That way, the next day, he surprises his friends with a whole new look! And he's never bored with his "castle!"

. . . Davy talks on the phone! He loves to have philosophical conversations late at night. So he calls up his other "night owl" friends and that's what they do. Sometimes they even get together to tell each other ghost stories or play scrabble or checkers and discuss "life!"

. . . Mike cooks! It's the one time he's sure he's not in Phyllis' way—and he can dirty as many pots and pans as he wants to preparing all sorts of exotic things. One night he practices making spaghetti sauce and the next night a chocolate souffle! It's also a treat for Phyllis, who wakes up to find some yummy surprise waiting for her! It also can save her the job of cooking the next day! ●●●

THE COWSILLS— WHAT THEY DARE TO DO IN THE DARK!

it's romantic to be serenaded beneath her window!

. . . Sometimes all The C's, including Papa Bud and Barbara, stay awake—to play hide-and-seek! It's a lot of fun in a dark house that has twenty-seven rooms with all the lights turned off! That way, the game is really a challenge! And the first person to be found is the first person to get up the next morning and put in the toast and coffee and pour out the juice for breakfast—while the others get some extra sleep! Needless to say, everybody tries his hardest to keep from being found! ●●●

3. A rooster laid one egg every other day. In two weeks, the bird laid seven eggs.

4. It's legal for a man to marry his widow's sister.

5. Bill's father was just promoted to the rank of Major in the Navy.

6. Jon was born on February 29th. So this year he had his fourth birthday, although he's really 17.

7. In order to visit the U.S. from Puerto Rico, a citizen must have a picture on his passport.

8. "I'm very jealous because my boyfriend said he can't see me Saturday because he's going to a ball game with Francis."

ANSWERS

1. There was no United States flag when the Pilgrims landed in 1620, since there was no United States.

2. B.C. stands for Before Christ. How would the coinmakers know they were "before" when the event hadn't taken place?

3. Hens lay eggs, not roosters.

4. If the lady were a widow, the man would be dead.

5. There's no rank of "major" in the Navy. The comparable naval rank is Lieutenant Commander.

6. If a person is born on February 29th, his age is always a multiple of four in any Leap Year. Jon could be 12, 16 or 20, but not 17 in 1968.

7. Puerto Ricans are citizens of the U.S. No passports are needed by citizens to visit back and forth.

8. This girl should save her green juice. Her boyfriend is going to a ball game with another guy. "Francis" with an "i" is a boy's name.

GIRL GAB

"Linda, today's my birthday."

"Congratulations, Frannie. How old aren't you?"

SHHH

"Can you keep a secret, Lisa?"

"Yes, but it's always my luck to tell it to girls who can't."

THE BEATLES GET BRAINWASHED!

Patron of The Arts by a 20-year-old student named John Eades! Paul was relaxing in his home on Cavendish Avenue in St. John's Wood, London, when he suddenly found himself confronted by an unexpected visitor—John Eades. Paul had never seen him before. Now it's not exactly easy to get into a B's house uninvited—but John accomplished this amazing feat!

"John got to me by saying he was a great personal friend of mine," Paul explained.

The student talked Paul into supporting the recent Leicester Arts Festival, and even into putting in a public appearance there. He did this by telling Paul a sob story (all true!) of how the group had such a small budget—half of which had been raised by the students themselves. The Arts Council had also given them some money. However, the City Council had only given them a small token sum. In short, they needed Paul's help to win them some publicity!

Paul was being talked into it . . . brainwashed . . . but he happily agreed. It was for a good cause and Paul was delighted to be of some help. In fact, he even agreed to have some of the graphic designs from the cartoon film, "Yellow Submarine" (which will most likely be screened in May and boasts three songs written by the boys!) displayed. He also agreed to a four-minute interview over the phone to the BBC's Radio Leicester supporting the event!

Paul knew he was only being asked because the group needed a big name to draw publicity. But he also knew that his help was needed for a worthy cause. So the generous Beatle permitted himself to be brainwashed!

GEORGE HARRISON

George Harrison has been totally involved in all aspects of Indian culture for some time now. His initial interest was sparked when he first met Ravi Shankar and became interested in the study of the Sitar! Since then, he's become totally absorbed by Indian religion, dress, literature, music and way of life. In fact, his Indian fascination has become so intense, one could say he's actually been brainwashed by Indian culture! And much more so than the other Beatles!

George made a special trip to India to study the Sitar under Ravi Shankar. He returned again to gain inspiration for writing the musical score for "Wonderwall"—his first endeavor to write the entire score for a film. He and his wife Pattie are often dressed in Indian fashions. And as you know, he's become a disciple of The Maharishi Mahesh Yogi in the study of Transcendental Meditation. Though the other Beatles are studying, too, George is the one who's really serious about becoming a Guru and teaching himself.

Indian ways and culture have become an intimate part of every aspect of George's life . . . and he's become brainwashed by it!

JOHN LENNON

John's been brainwashed by color . . . crazy painted psychedelic color! And it's really quite unusual that it happened to him! You see, John was The Beatle who steered away from anything bright and colorful. He even had the walls painted black in his home! But somehow things changed . . . John got bitten by the painting bug!

It started with his Rolls Royce. RR's are generally a symbol of elegant wealth. John's car is surely expensive . . . but it's a far cry from elegance! The madly painted car is a rainbow of colorful designs. John was so pleased with it, he had his piano painted in much the same fashion.

The next thing John did was to turn his son Julian on to the painting kick! And in just a short time, the little boy produced a painting in oils which was so good, it was put on the cover of The Beatles' Christmas Album. (a special Beatle album given to all members of the boys' fan club in England)!

John's always looking around for other interesting objects and possessions he can have painted. His brainwashed-brain is certainly living in a world of painted technicolor!

RINGO STARR

Ringo's The Beatle who's done more "solo" work than any of the others. It was a big step for him to something on his own the first time. After all, The B's had always worked together. So when Ringo, as well as the other Beatles, decided to try their individual talents, it was a hard thing to do!

But once Ringo got started, the idea of working alone really grew on him. He started to enjoy doing his own private routine. He began by doing a short nightclub act. And since then, he's really branched out. Recently he appeared as Cilla Black's special guest on her TV program. And, of course, the highlight of his solo career is his role in the film, "Candy."

Ringo wouldn't think of ever splitting with the other B's. It's a very important part of his life. But now that he's made such a hit on his own, he'd never think of giving up his solo career. He couldn't . . . he's been brainwashed by his own success! ●●●

JAY'S SECRET LADIES!

all the different types of Indian food, which Jay loved.

Now that Jay and Sajid have left India and are living in the United States, there's little chance Jay will ever see Elanda again. But he'll always be thankful to her for making his stay in India a very memorable part of his life. And if he ever visits India again, Elanda can be sure to expect a visitor!

MISS RIGHT? ? ? ? ? ?

There's a girl in Jay's life right now who could very well be THE girl. This particular lady is the most secret of all. He doesn't want too many people to know about their relationship 'cause that's how rumors start.

Jay says she's the kind of girl every guy would love to date. She has a great sense of humor, is always a perfect lady and she fits in and gets along with everyone, no matter where they go or who they're with.

They've never talked about marriage since Jay wants to go to college and also pursue his acting career. Besides, they're much too young. But from the way they look at one another and the amount of time they spend together, you never know. One day soon, Jay may have an important announcement to make! ●●●

TIGER LILLY

Beautiful and Appealing Original Oil Paintings Now Yours As Full Color Large Fine Art Prints

ALL 4 ONLY $1

Just picture these irresistible kittens in your own home. Everyone who sees these appealing waifs falls in love with their adorable warmth and touching wide eyes. You simply want to take them into your home and into your heart. That's because the artist, Gig, one of America's most perceptive painters of animals, has captured the universal appeal and charm of these intriguing felines. Under his sensitive brush, the wistful quality of kittens and the realistic backgrounds combine to give a compassionate glimpse of life. Unfortunately the black and white illustrations here cannot possibly convey all the artist's magical colors and exquisite details. Only when you see them in your home can you fully appreciate their magnificent artistry and exquisite beauty.

OFFER WILL NOT BE REPEATED THIS SEASON

We urge you to order your full color prints now while the supply lasts. The dramatic portraiture of animals is the latest decorator rage, and these are certain to go quickly. In order to show some of the craftsmanship and intricate detail in all the pictures, we have shown one picture larger than the rest. Actually all four fine art prints are the same size, a full 10" x 14" decorator size. So hurry, order now, offer will not be repeated this season in this magazine.

"Don't Let Them Call YOU SKINNY"

Advises beautiful Hollywood actress and Miss Universe of 1964 Corinna Tsopei.

SEE CORINNA TSOPEI IN 20th CENTURY-FOX "THE SWEET RIDE"

"Movie making is truly fascinating, but exhausting . . . it's often hard to keep my weight up. The grueling nervous pace of daytime rehearsals plus night-time publicity appearances and celebrity parties means eating on the run and sometimes missing meals altogether . . . at the risk of being overly tired and too much on edge even to sleep. To help maintain an attractively curved figure I, like so many other Hollywood actresses, turn to Wate-On Liquid. Wate-On is so highly concentrated that only a spoonful or two is all that's directed. And I carry Wate-On Tablets for a quick energy lift and additional weight building nutrients between meals. So . . . if you're thin and underweight because of poor eating habits - . . . why not try Wate-On. Before long, maybe the boys won't yell 'Hey! Skinny!' at you anymore!"
